

HETTY NEWSLETTER

7/3/19

Welcome to another newsletter for the Spring term – fingers crossed that the weather stays good!

We've got lots of great topics planned such as 'Spring', 'Dinosaurs', 'Save Our Planet,' 'Our Family' and 'Books.' We hope your children have enjoyed celebrating World Book Day with us – we've had great fun visiting the local library, reading hundreds of books and acting out our favourite scenes as well as making some wonderful craft to accompany the stories.

We have decided to hold an open evening on Monday 29th April for parents/carers. This will give you an opportunity to come into HETTY and have a look at your child's profile. The open evening will take place from 6 – 7.30 pm. Feel free to drop in anytime throughout the evening, it will be very informal and will give you the chance to chat with Mrs Bowes and Mrs Chester as well as your child's key worker. We're looking forward to seeing you then.

Over the next few weeks we will be sending home a reading folder with your child. This is a wonderful for you and your son/daughter to spend a few minutes book that your child has chosen from HETTY. We hope you this, but please don't feel under any pressure to do so though. We're looking forward to reading your comments in the reading records and to seeing so many children enjoying sharing their books with you.

Now we are living in such a modern age, we are having to adhere to lots of rules with regards to safeguarding. One of the issues that has been brought to our attention is around social media and we have been informed by the authorities that we are no longer allowed to be friends with any parents of the children in our setting on staff's private Facebook/Instagram accounts. We do hope you won't be offended if we 'unfriend' you from our personal accounts or if we decline a friend invitation from you! Please don't take it personally, we still think you're great!

Finally, if your child has a mixture of hot dinners and packed lunches, please let us know which one it is on a daily basis!

Please make sure you look at the HETTY website. We update it regularly with new photos of your children and information about what we're up to at HETTY. ALL HETTY documents such as policies, British Values, Ways Your Child Might Learn. etc. are on there. We would love to hear any comments you have about it too. Any correspondence/forms are available for you to download on the website too.
